FINANCIAL SERVICES GUIDE

You have the right to ask us about our charges, the type of advice we will provide you, and what you can do if you have a complaint about our services.

This Financial Services Guide ("FSG") is intended to inform you of certain basic matters relating to our relationship, prior to us providing you with a financial service. The matters covered by the FSG include who we are, how we can be contacted, what services we are authorised to provide to you, how we (and any other relevant parties) are remunerated, details of any potential conflicts of interest, and details of our internal and external dispute resolution procedures, along with how you can access them.

It is intended that this FSG should assist you in determining whether to use any of the services described in this document.

You should also be aware that you are entitled to receive a Statement of Advice whenever we provide you with any advice, which takes into account your objectives, financial situation and needs. The Statement of Advice will contain the advice, the basis on which it is given and information about fees, commissions, business relationships and associations which may have influenced the provision of the advice.

If our representative provides further advice to you, and that further advice is related to the advice we provided to you in a previous Statement of Advice and we do not give that further advice in writing you may request a copy of the record of that further advice at any time up to 7 years from the date our representative gave the further advice to you.

You can request the record of the advice by contacting the representative or us in writing or by telephone or by email.

In the event we make a recommendation to acquire a particular financial product (other than securities), we must also provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement containing information about the particular product, which will enable you to make an informed decision in relation to the acquisition of that product.

WHAT WE DO AND HOW WE ARE PAID

Internal databases are maintained detailing client's investments that were recommended by HNW Planning Pty Ltd. This does not constitute portfolio monitoring. Portfolios are reviewed on an annual basis or more regularly subject to need and the client's or HNW Planning's discretion.

Outside the regulated Australian Financial Services licence framework, HNW Planning offers other services for which it is remunerated including:

- Referrals to direct property specialists
- Self Managed Superannuation Fund Administration

Who do you act for when you provide financial services for me?

HNW Planning Pty Ltd is responsible for the financial services provided to you.

How will I pay for the services?

- HNW Planning Pty Ltd may receive commissions from the issuers of the products approved by HNW Planning Pty Ltd and that may be recommended.
- Where we recommend a life insurance product we may be paid a commission by the life insurance company.
- Alternatively, where appropriate we might enter into a fee-for-service arrangement directly with you.

Do you receive remuneration, commission, fees or other benefits in relation to providing the financial services to me and how is that commission calculated?

- Most managers of products recommended offer to pay HNW Planning Pty Ltd an initial commission. This commission, which can vary depending on the product and manager, is in a range of between 0% and 5% and calculated on your investment amount and paid by the manager when you make an investment. For example, on an investment amount of $10,000, 3% initial commission would equate to $300. Dependant on the product and the manager this may or may not reduce the total amount of your capital invested and/or redeemable. Alternative fee-for-service arrangements might see this commission rebated to you.
- The managers of the products may pay HNW Planning Pty Ltd an ongoing commission. This commission, which can vary depending on the product and manager, is calculated in a range of between 0% and 1.2% per annum on the balance in your account. For example, on an investment amount of $10,000, a 1% ongoing commission would equate to $100 per annum. Alternative fee-for-service arrangements might see this commission rebated to you.

WHAT WE DO AND HOW WE ARE PAID

Do you receive remuneration, commission, fees or other benefits in relation to providing the financial services to me and how is that commission calculated? (continued)

- Where a life insurance company product has been recommended the issuer of the product will pay HNW Planning Pty Ltd a commission. This commission ranges between 0% (for some investment products) and up to 125% (for some personal risk products) of your first year's premium. For example, on a life insurance policy with a premium of $600, an initial commission of 120% would equate to $720.
- Where a life insurance company product has been recommended the issuer of the product will pay HNW Planning Pty Ltd an ongoing commission. This commission, which can vary depending on the product, is calculated in a range of between 0.15% (for some investment products) and up to 30% (for some personal risk products). This commission is paid each month or upon annual renewal for personal risk products. For example, on a life insurance policy with an annual premium of $600, an ongoing commission of 15% would equate to $90 annually.
- The licensee will receive brokerage of between 0% and 1% of the transacted amount for acting as intermediary for buying and selling of direct equities. For example, brokerage of 0.85% on a transaction of $10,000 shares bought would equate to $85.
- I am sub-authorised by a Corporate Authorised Representative (CAR) of HNW Planning Pty Ltd. A percentage of revenue I generate is retained by HNW Planning Pty Ltd. HNW Planning Pty Ltd pays the CAR a proportion of its revenue based on, and adjusted according to, the scale of that revenue. I am separately engaged by that CAR.
- I may be entitled to a bonus from the CAR based on income generated by me. At this time I am not aware if I will receive any such bonus. I am not aware of any other incentive that I may receive from the licensee, the CAR, or any product issuer.
- The exact amounts of any fees, commissions, bonuses or other incentives received by the licensee and the CAR, and my share of that, will be included in any Statement of Advice that I will provide to you.

Do any relationships or associations exist which might influence you in providing me with the financial services?

- Neither I, the CAR nor HNW Planning Pty Ltd, nor any related bodies corporate have any relationships or association with any product issuer that could be expected to influence us in the provision of the financial services.

IF YOU HAVE ANY COMPLAINTS

Who can I complain to if I have a complaint about the provision of the financial services to me?

- HNW Planning Pty Ltd is a member of the Financial Ombudsman Service.
- If you have any complaint about the service provided to you, you should take the following steps:
- Contact us and tell us about your complaint. If your complaint is not satisfactorily resolved within 3 days, please contact the Compliance Manager of HNW Planning Pty Ltd or put your complaint in writing and send to HNW Planning Pty Ltd, PO Box 3305, Erina NSW 2250. We will seek to resolve your complaint quickly and fairly. If the complaint cannot be addressed to your satisfaction you have the right to complain to the Financial Ombudsman Service (FOS). Stage 1 of the FOS process is where FOS facilitates discussions and negotiations between the parties. All relevant documents are exchanged and the issues in dispute are identified.

Stage 2 is conciliation and the parties come face to face with a conciliator from the FOS national panel. The role of the conciliator is to assist the parties to explore options for settlement of the dispute and to help parties to agree on their own outcome.

Stage 3 is where the independent adjudicator is requested to make a decision “on the papers” taking into account the relevant law, fairness and reasonableness. If you accept the adjudicator’s decision it is binding on the member.

If your concerns involve ethical conduct you may wish to consider raising your concerns in writing with the Financial Planning Association of Australia. They can be contacted at PO Box 109, Collins Street West, Melbourne Vic 8007.

The Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) also has a free call Infoline on 1300 300 630 which you may use to make a complaint and obtain information about your rights.

Do you hold Professional Indemnity Insurance?

We hold Professional Indemnity Insurance cover for the activities conducted under our AFS licence. The limit of the indemnity is $3million for any one claim and $6million in the aggregate for all claims arising out of our AFS licence activities. The insurance will cover claims in relation to the professional business services of authorised representatives, representatives and employees of the Licensee who no longer work for the Licensee (but who did at the time of the provision of the relevant services). Our Professional Indemnity insurance cover is subject to the policy terms and conditions, however we believe that the cover generally satisfies the requirements of s.912B of the Corporations Act.
